BIG BLAZE IN CAMP FURLONG EARLY THURSDAY MORNING

At about 3 o'clock Thursday morning fire was discovered in a small building close to the Commissary Ware House in Camp Furlong, and before it could be gotten under control had destroyed the Commissary Ware House, the Ordnance Ware House, the Motor Transportation Garage, the carpenter shop and several small buildings in the camp.

It is not known how the fire originated, and we could not learn the amount of damage that was sustained.

The fire made a big blaze and the most of Columbus and all of Camp Furlong residents were out to see it.

BAD CHECK ARTIST CAPTURED IN OKLAHOMA

Clevis, N. M., Dec. 28.—Chief of Police Ware, returned last week from Duke, Oklahoma, with C. L. Martin, who is alleged to have passed several worthless checks here sometime ago. Martin is said to have cashed three checks amounting to over $20 at the Clevis National Bank, but when they were sent to the Oklahoma bank for collection they were returned marked as funds. Martin will be given a preliminary hearing today.

MANY WOMEN NOW IN OFFICE
